JUDGING CRITERIA

CRITERIA	DILIGENCE	RATING
INNOVATION & CREATIVITY	The level of creativity and uniqueness of the innovation, idea, or technology. Does the startup offer a novel approach or solution in their sector?	1-5
POTENTIAL	The product/solution's functionality, scalability, including revenue growth, team expansion, and market penetration. How well can the startup grow and scale in their industry?	1-5
FUNCTIONALITY	The effectiveness and optimization of the product or solution's functionality. How well does the product perform its intended functions and solve user problems?	1-5
TRACTION & MARKET GROWTH	The company's fit in it's market by assessing early validators that the company would be / is received by its market, including but not limited to:: financial indicators (revenue, customer growth), social indicators (high user engagement (e.g. daily active users) or performance indicators (customers, clear roadmap). Would or is the company able to sustainably create growth?	1-5
IMPACT ON PEOPLE & SOCIETY	How impactful is the startup? Is it helping to improve the lives of everyday individuals, and the society and environment we live in?	1-5
TEAM SIZE & EXPERIENCE	The team's size and the experience of the founders and board/advisors. Does the team align with the startup's current and future operational needs?	1-5
DELIVERY	The level of clarity, conciseness, thoroughness, tone, structure, and timing	1-5

DAVID SAYS...

"I often hear that people find this part difficult. It's all about focusing on the action you want the audience to take, not just having them think differently. Think of it like this – what could they do at 09:30 on a Monday morning? Click something, email somebody, call someone, sign a cheque! These are the short term goals and the action we want the pitch to lead to."

What's your long term objective with regard to pitching? Signing a deal? Raising 500K investment? Getting someone in the audience to join your advisory board? Looking for employees? Need two million for an internal project?

What could be a short term objective – a first next step after this pitch? A follow up meeting? They visit your web site? Sign up for your Beta program, or download your already working app?

How could you say this objective in one sentence? Note – this could be your Call To Action near the end of the pitch.

DAVID SAYS...

"Choose where you will put the focus in your story, because you have limited time. How many sentences do you need to tell about the Pain? Can you share What's Unique about the product in a couple of sentences? Is the Introduction a simple, "This is who we are, this is what we do?" or will you immediately dive into the Pain? The order of the pitch topics below is a suggestion - you can change it if you wish - and always keep in mind that you need to hook your audience on the value of what you deliver, not just tell about the product."

Introduction:

THE PAIN

What's the problem you solve? How big is it? Who are the customers? What are they losing?

THE PRODUCT

Tell in a few sentences what it does, and how much it improves on the problem.

WHAT'S UNIQUE

Tell one big thing that is Unique about your product, that makes you stand out from others.

THE PROOF

Do you have sales? Growth? And if early stage: what Validation have you done?

THE IMPACT

What impact do you make on People, Society, and/or the environment?

SIMPLE FINANCIALS

Revenue 2026? Goal 2027? Bigger ambitions? Any exceptional margins? Keep it simple!

THE TEAM

What are the 1-2 things about your team that make them the people to succeed?

The opening
42/50 words
Pitching your ideas can be very hard. How can you tell others what your idea is, without losing yourself into details that don't matter too much? I experienced this first hand for the last 5 year, pitching ideas to most of the PwC clients in the Netherlands.
The problem
32 / 40 words
We used to do presentations, quite long, quite detailed. However, we noticed this is not really common anymore. Everybody pitches nowadays, and I get it; its short and snappy, who doesn't like that, right?
The solution
32 / 40 words
That's why we came up with an online tool that offers you proven innovation templates and storylines. They work, and they are perfect for innovative companies as PwC.
Market & Validation
11 / 120 words
So we start using Pitchy in October, 2018. And since then...

RECOMMENDED WAYS TO TO USE AI TO CREATE YOUR PITCH

DON'T: Just ask AI to write the complete script

DON'T: Outsource your thinking to AI

DON'T: ask AI to create your whole deck

You won't be able to answer questions about the business

You won't sound natural

After some of your own thinking...

Ask AI to reduce a part of your story to a certain number of sentences

Create images for your slides

Use support tools like Co-Pilot

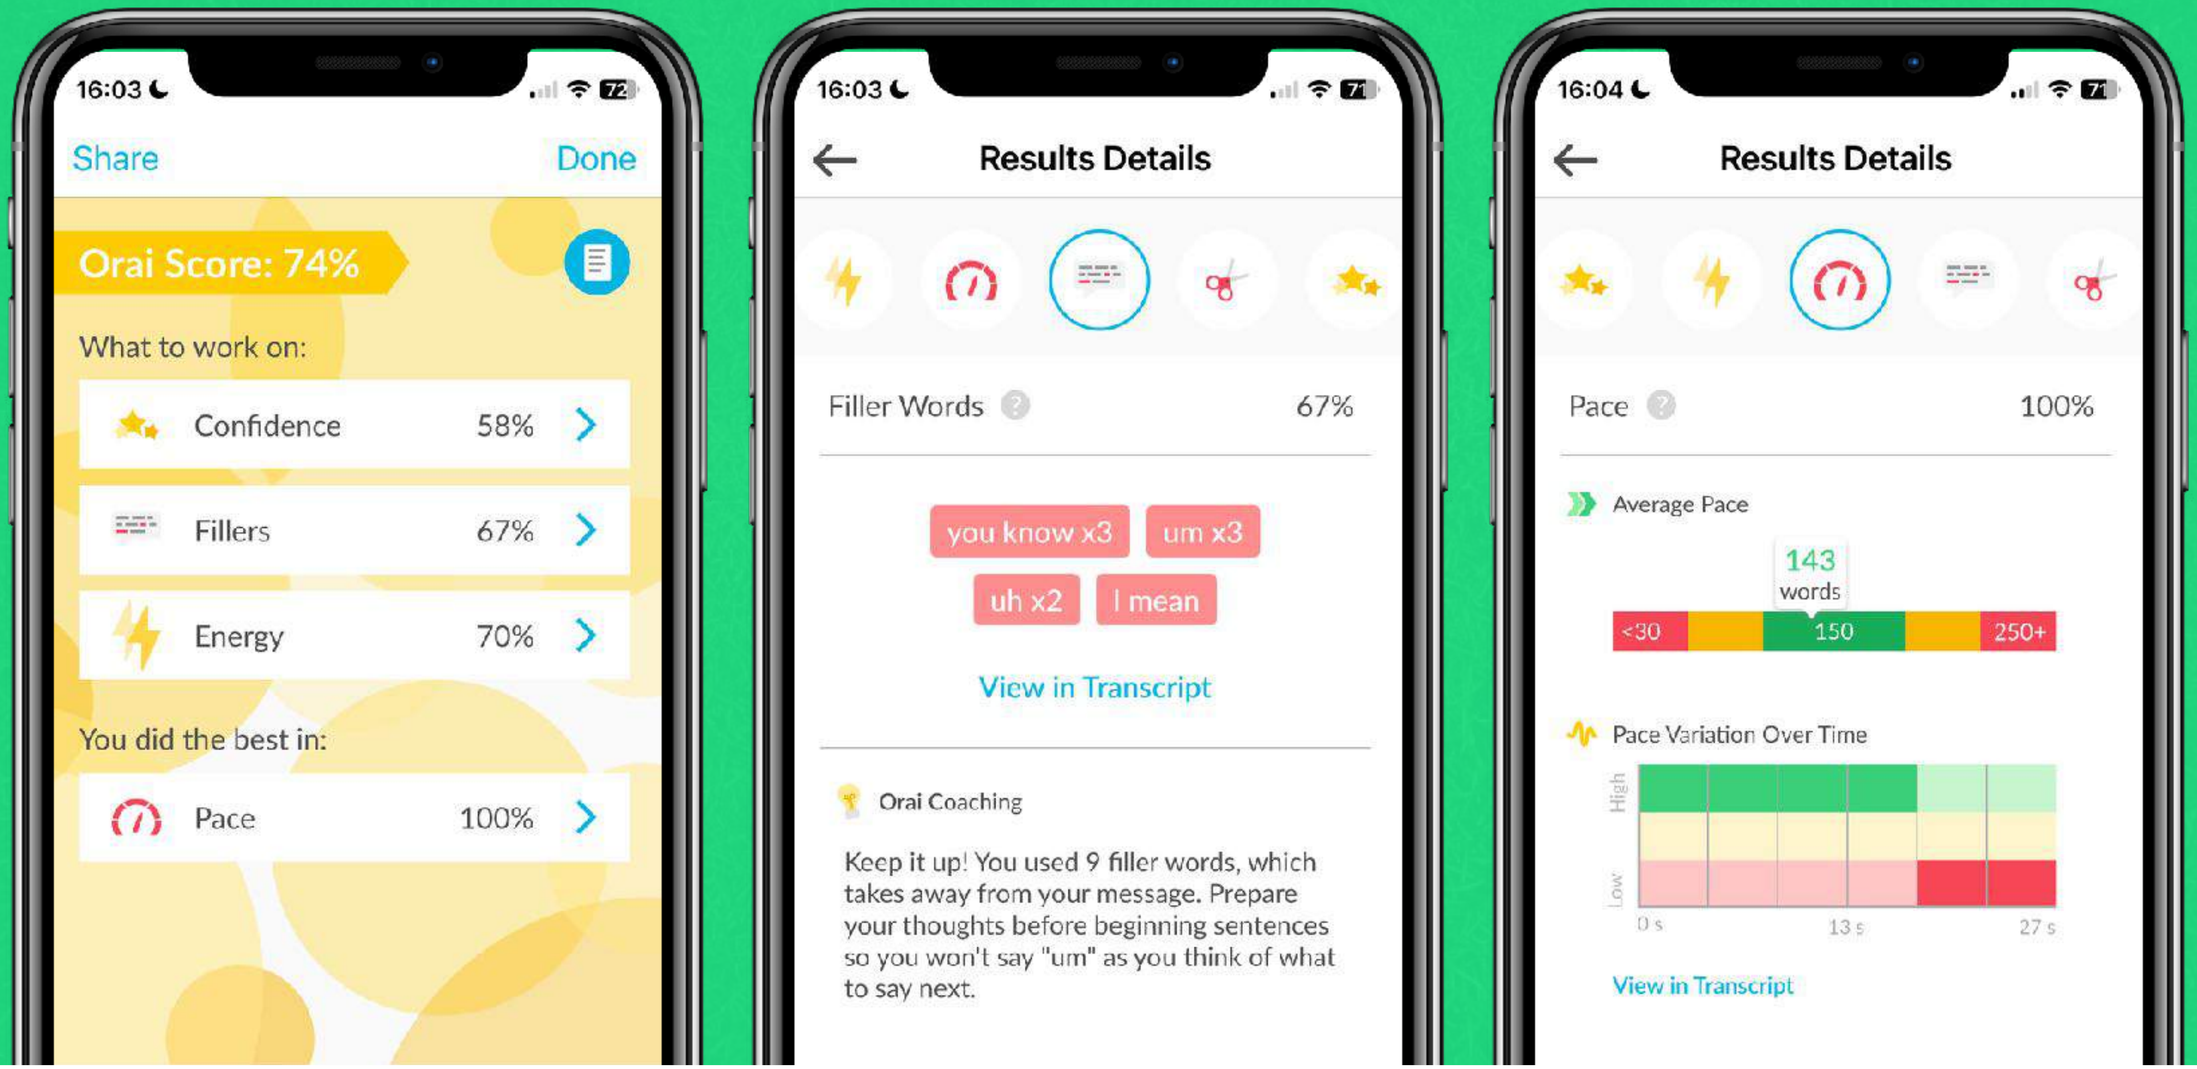
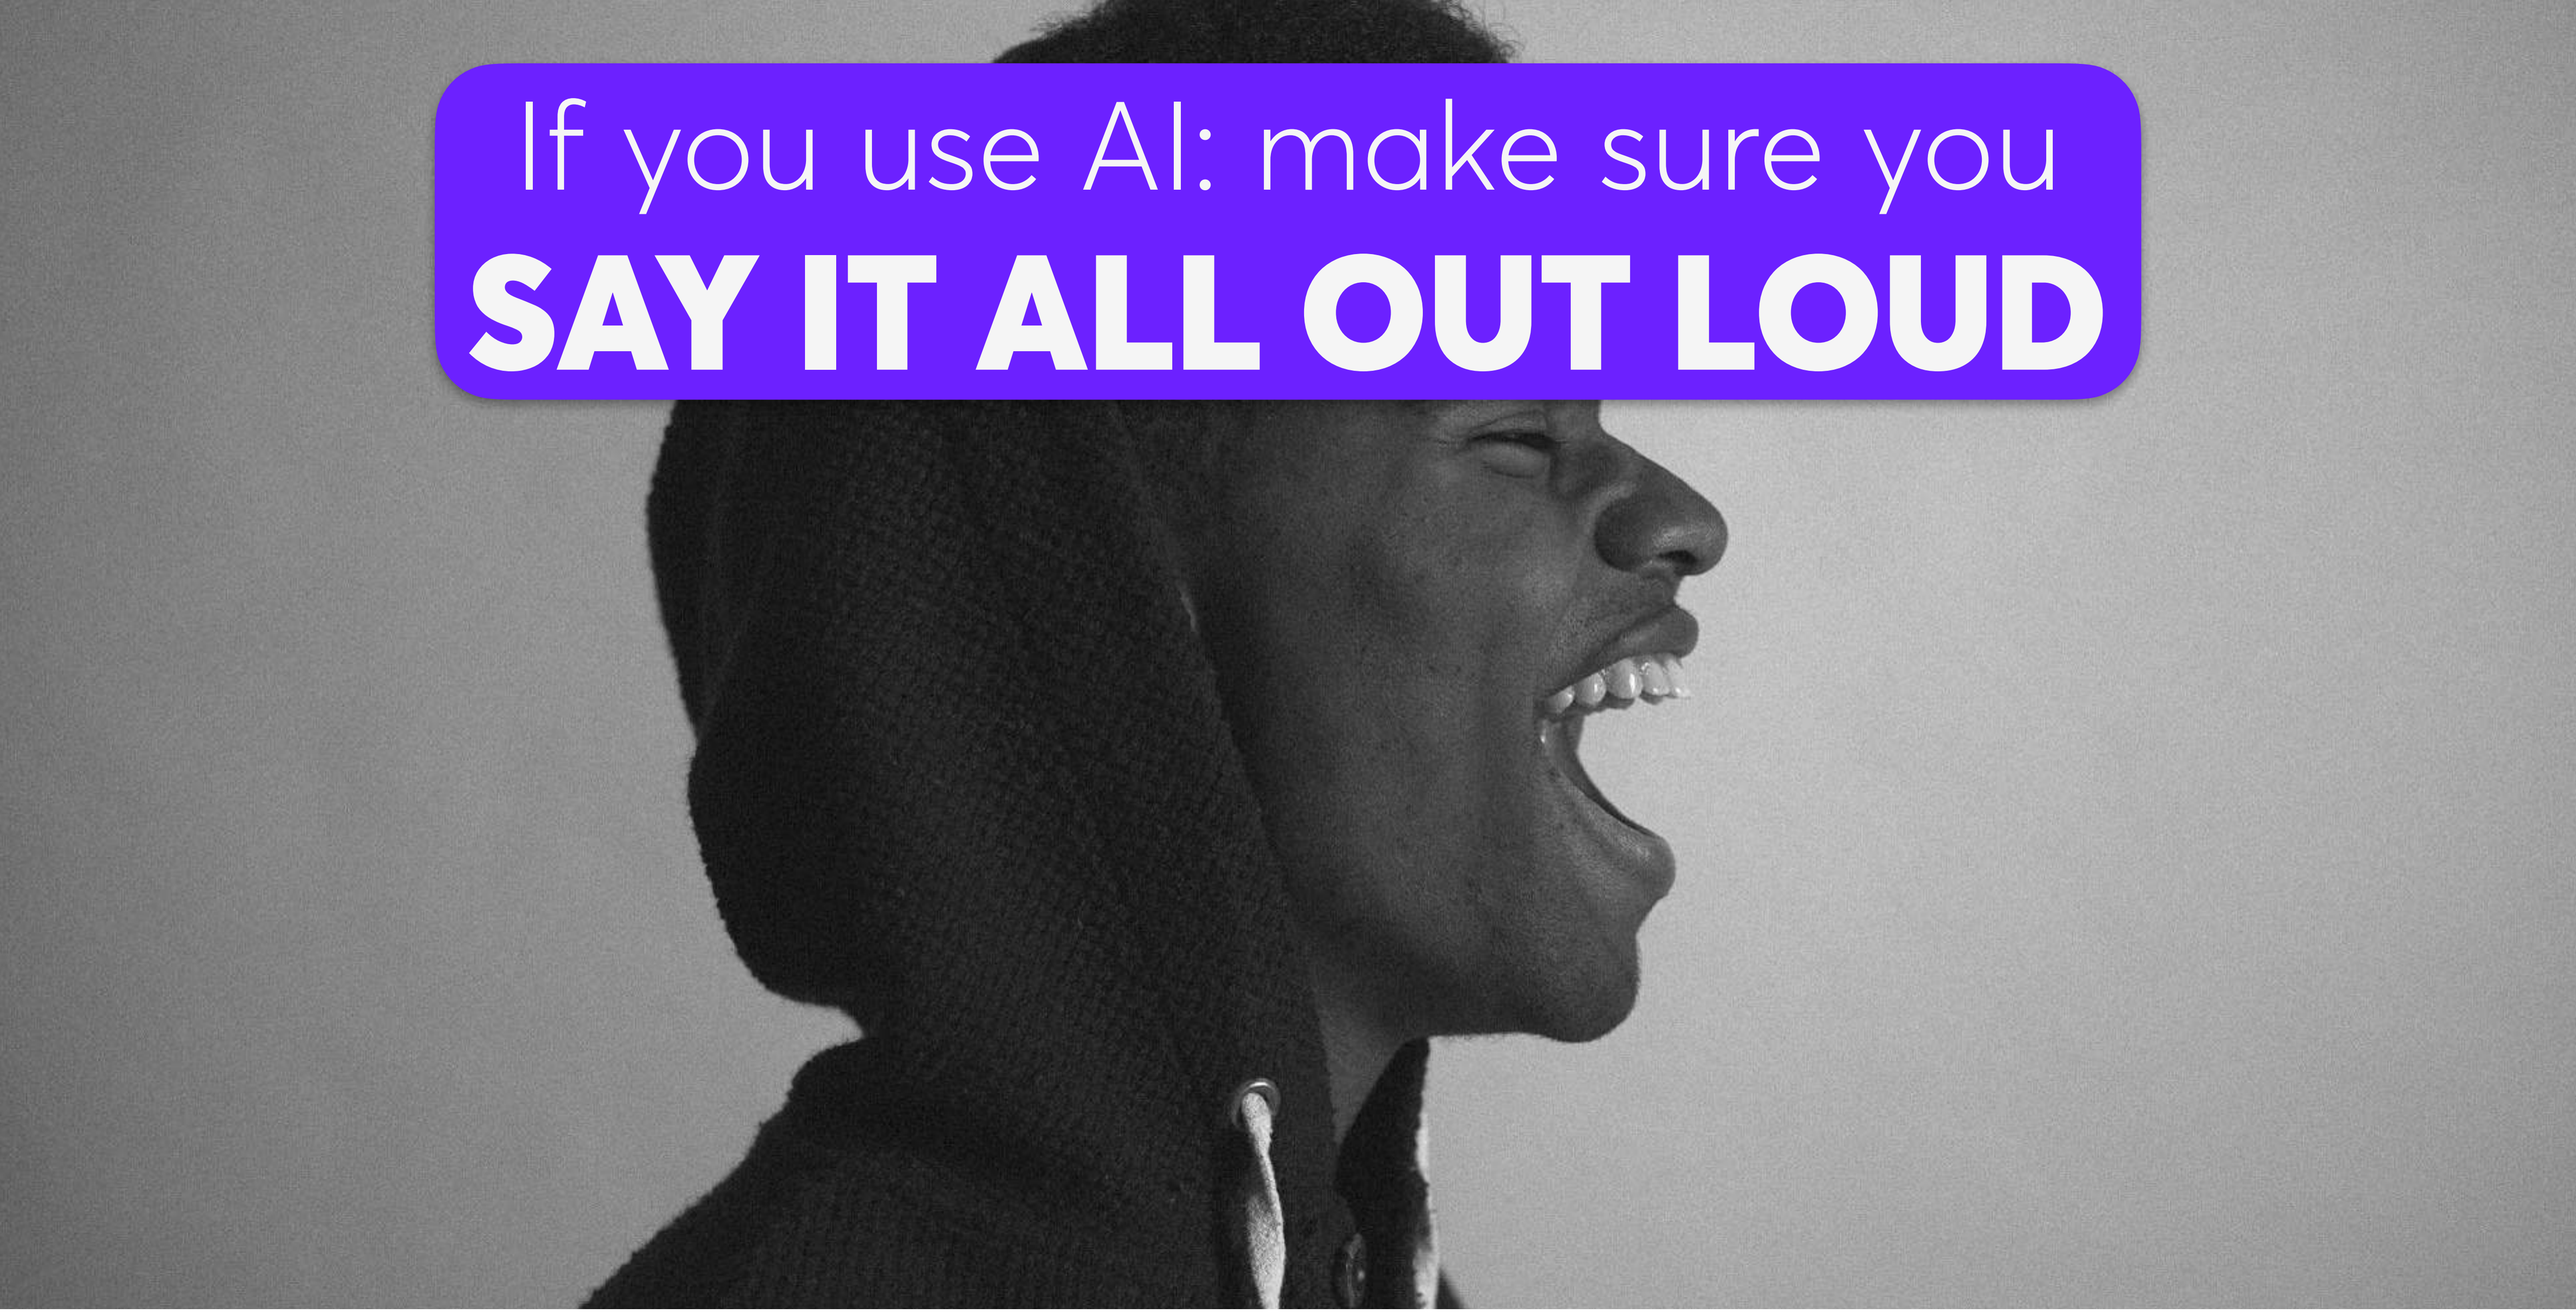
Use an app like ORAI to get feedback on the way you deliver it

A great tool - ORAI APP





If you use AI: make sure you
