Your image, your story. One search machine, all image databases.

THE PROBLEM

Nowadays the world is an image-centric place, with consumer demanding more diverse content. However, the stock image market has become intransparent and fragmented, which results in consumers having a harder time to find the right image for the right purpose.

SOLUTION

Dashmote bundles the stock image providers to empower the user to search, compare and buy images from multiple providers in one platform.

FINANCIAL

"Both from a unit economic's perspective as well as the market perspective (€4 Billion market), Dashmote has the full growth potential"

STRATEGY

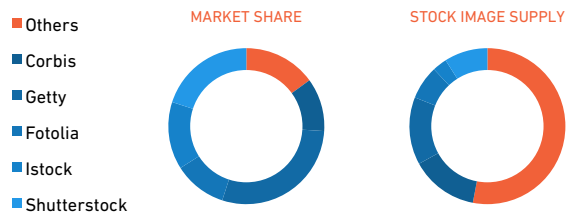

Creating a win-win situation with our partners by offering them additional sales opportunities by targeting on-demand image buyers for their images.

MARKET INSIGHTS & OPPORTUNITIES

Top 5 Image Stock Providers have 85% of the commercial market share but supply only 47% of stock photos online.

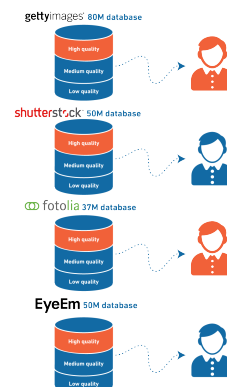

Currently a user visits on average 4 platforms to find the ideal image. Dashmote brings you all the high quality images in one platform.

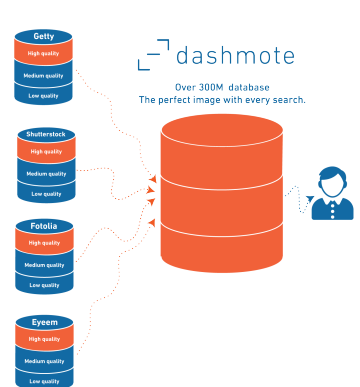

TIMELINE

- December 2014 - Dashmote Founded
- February 2015 - Image search prototype
- March 2015 - Closed Beta
- May 2015 - 500 Beta users
- August 2015 - Open Beta

SKACE

INSTANT PEOPLE FEEDBACK & COACHING
IN YOUR POCKET

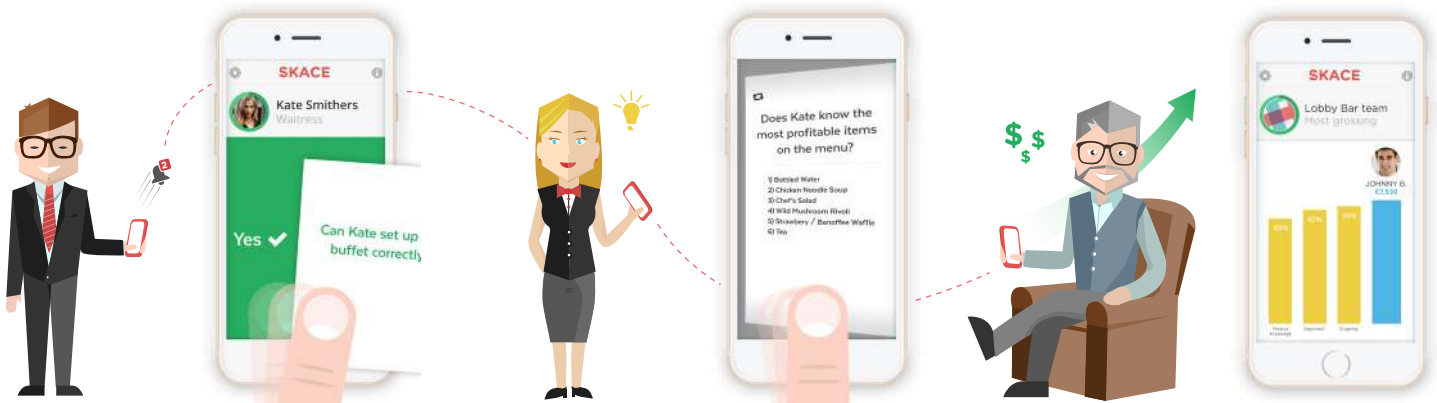

PROBLEM

Formal annual reviews were designed over 30 years ago. 95% of HR managers now agree that because they are done too infrequently, they aren't supporting the professional growth intended and thus are too costly for the little value delivered.

SOLUTION

SKACE is a performance management app unique in engaging managers to give employees frequent and timely feedback together with personalised coaching through simple swiping of Yes/No questions from their own devices.

HOW IT WORKS ?

- 1 Managers are swiping simple Yes/No questions served by intelligent feedback algorithm
- 2 Employees get instant training insights and check their progress through online scorecards
- 3 The organisation transforms to 21st century open, transparent & fast learning culture
